

Birichino, Besson Vineyard, Old Vines Vignes Centenaires Grenache, Central Coast, California 2014

SINGLE

1 shares

D

Tasted by Peter Richards MW, (at Decanter, 15 Jan 2018)

Part of 30 great New World buys under £30

Yes, it's made from own-rooted vines over 100 years old and yes, it's all trendy neutral barrels, wild yeasts, a touch of appassimento, unfiltered... But that's missing the point. This wine is simply joyous. Pale, bright, crunchy, savoury, edgy, elegant. Utterly revitalising.

Drinking Window 2018 - 2026

