

Birichino Amici Monterey
"Birichino" 2010

California, USA
Malvasia

If you are looking for an exotic wine, full of spice, apple, quince and more, then this is the wine for you; thoroughly intriguing, it is a wine in two parts, showing exotic fruits and hedonistic perfume on the one hand, and delivering razor sharp acidity and mineral complexity on the other; simply put, this wine is a heck of a lot of fun.
